Effect of Liberalisation Process on Prices of Essential Commodities

1175. SHRI SANJAY DALMIA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the process of liberalisation has any relation with rise in the prices of essential commodities; and

(b) if so, the measures taken to counter the adverse effect of liberalisation on prices of essential commodities?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) and (b) Out of 30 essential commodities, 24 are food items which include, cereals, pulses, edible oils, sugar, gur, milk, potato, onion, fish, atta, etc. The liberalisation process has had no direct impact on their prices. In fact in the case of some of the essential commodities which are in periodic short supply, namely, pulses, edible oils, sugar and skimmod milk powder, the policy of import liberalisation and lowering of tariffs has helped in moderating the price rise in these commodities.
